John G. Berry Sr. - The son of Miles Berry and brother of Elijah Right Berry was John G. Berry Sr. John G. Berry served with the Tennessee Volunteers in the Texas Revolution. After the war, the Volunteers were compensated with land for their service. He was given a Conditional Certificate on that date with the only restriction that he live in Texas on that property for three years. He signed his will on Oct. 28, 1871 granting over 10,000 acres to his children and grandchildren.

John G. Berry Jr., the son of John G. Berry Sr. died in battle in the War Between the States serving under Col. Alexander Horton.

Elijah Right Berry – another son of Miles Berry and our direct line was a Baptist preacher. In the book, Jackson County History, Alabama, by John Robert Kenamer, it states that “By 1821 the Mud Creek Association was formed at the Mud Creek Meeting House. This Association included all Baptist churches in Jackson and some in Sequatchie Valley, TN. The nine churches were located in Mountgilled, Mud Creek, Providence (Maynard's Cove), New Hope, Hopewell, Blue Spring, Friendship, Paint Rock (in the valley), and Union, in Sequatchie Valley.” And that “Preachers of this church who were well and favorably known in their day are: John WILLIAMS, John REED, Isaac REED, Samuel McBEE, Jabez PERKINS, Wesley SISK, Robert CHANDLER, Elijah BERRY, John J. PAGE, Peter MAPLES...”

John Miles Berry, the son of Elijah Right Berry, fought in the Civil War on the confederacy side. He enlisted on March 22, 1861 when he turned 26 years old. He served for one exactly one year in the infantry. However, he enlisted a second time, on July 1862 where he was a Private in the 4th Alabama Calvary under Colonel A. A. Russell. He filled out an application for a pension at the age of 76 years old. He apparently was denied a pension before because the U.S. government refused to grant pensions to Confederate soldiers. But later on the government succeeded in giving pension to Confederate soldiers. John miles Berry was rejected before when he applied for one and I don't know if he ever received a pension but I have a document that was a Texas pension application he filled out on March 26, 1911. An Act was passed by the Thirty-first Legislature of the State of Texas on March 26, 1909. The Texas State was granting a pension to Confederate soldier that met certain requirements:

- 1) They enlisted and served in the military service of the Confederate States during the War Between the States of the United States.
- 2) Was not a deserter.
- 3) Did not abandon his post and was loyal and true to his duty.
- 4) He had an honorable discharge or surrendered.

- 5) He was a bona fide continual citizen of the state of Texas prior to January 1, 1880.
- 6) He does not hold any National, State, or County office which pays him a salary or fees of one hundred and fifty dollars per annum.
- 7) He does not receive any support of an annum amount of one hundred and fifty dollars his wife or any other means.
- 8) He does not have an assessed value of more than one thousand dollars.
- 9) He does not receive aid or a pension from any other State from the United States or from any other source.
- 10) That I am not an inmate of the Confederate Home and answers the questions below.

He may have had this pension denied because, according to his death certificate, he passed away in the Confederate Home in Austin, Texas. The history of the Confederate Homes can be found on the web. Basically, Homes in several states sprung up in the late 1800's to the early 1900's for the Confederate soldiers that fought in the Civil War. They were design to take care of individuals that fought on the Confederate side and could not take care of themselves or hold a job. One was such home was the Confederate Home in Austin, Texas. This Texas confederate home:

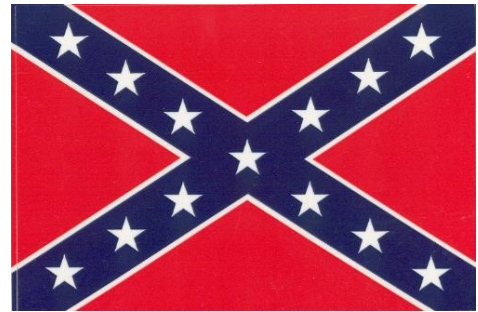

“...began as a project of the John B. Hood Camp of United Confederate Veterans, which obtained a charter from the state on November 28, 1884. The camp's main purpose was to establish a home for disabled and indigent Confederate veterans. The Albert Sidney Johnston Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy cooperated in raising funds for the home. In 1886 the camp purchased sixteen acres of land at 1600 West Sixth Street in Austin from John B. and Mary Armstrong, and the home opened on November 1, 1886. In December of that year the UDC held a "Grand Gift Concert and Lottery," with prizes donated by the public, and raised over $10,800 to support the home. Operating funds continued to come from public contributions until 1891, when the state assumed control and support, and the name officially became Texas Confederate Home. The John B. Hood Camp deeded the property to the state on March 6, 1891. Management was the responsibility of a board of managers made up of five Confederate veterans appointed by the governor and a superintendent, also a Confederate veteran, who was selected by the board. The complex on twenty-six acres of land on West Sixth Street had several buildings, including the large administration building and living quarters, a brick hospital, and private cottages. On January 1, 1920, the legislature established the Board of Control, abolished the board of managers for the Confederate Home, and transferred the responsibility of appointing a superintendent to the new agency. In 1949 the Fifty-first Legislature transferred control and management of the Confederate Home to the Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools. However, the Board of Control continued to handle purchases for the institution. The Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools administered the home until it was closed. During its first two years of operation under the Hood Camp, 113 veterans were admitted to the home, and from 1887 to 1953 more than 2,000 former Confederates were housed in the facility. In 1929 there were 312 residents, but by 1936 the number had dropped to eighty. As more of the veterans died, the number of residents continued to decrease; there were thirty-eight in 1938. By that time the average age of the men was ninety-three. In 1943 only six Confederates were still in residence. Thomas Riddle, the last veteran, died in 1954 at the age of 108. By act of the Forty-eighth Legislature, "senile" mental patients from other state institutions were transferred to the Confederate Home. After 1939 disabled veterans of the Spanish American War and World War I, as well as their spouses, were admitted. In 1963 the remaining patients were sent to Kerrville State Hospital, and the Austin facility was transferred to the Austin State Hospital as an annex. The buildings on Sixth Street were razed in 1970 to make room for University of Texas married students' housing." This source can be found at:

According to John Miles Berry's death certificate, John Miles Berry died while of Intestinal Toxemia as an inmate of the Confederate Home in Austin, Travis County, Texas at the age of 84. He died July 22, 1920 there and was buried in Snyder, Texas on July 24, 1920. An online listing of the people that are buried at Snyder Cemetery show a John M. Berry, born 1836, died Aug 8, 1920, a "PVT 4 ALA CAV CSA", "DOB from Death Cert", and buried in the Berry - Clark section of the cemetery. However, if you look at his death certificate, you find that the death date is July 22, 1920 and not Aug 8, 1920 as stated. Also, the birth year was 1835 – not 1836. To be specific, he was born March 22, 1835. This cemetery record shows that his wife, Georgia Ann Berry. It states that she was born on March 26, 1844 and died on October 2, 1917. It also states that she was the wife of John M Berry and is also buried in the Berry – Clark section of the Snyder Cemetery.

According to John Miles Berry's death certificate, the death date on his grave stone is wrong. It should be July 22, 1920.

And this is the gravestone of John Miles Berry's Wife Georgia Ann Elizabeth (Maples) Berry.

Land of the Berry

On an Alabama genealogy forum that was posted by Kelly titled "Paint Rock Primitive Baptists," and found at <http://www.network54.com/Forum/48472/viewall-page-26> is stated here:

"My ancestor was Reverend Elijah Right Berry. His father was Miles Berry. They had land up on Clair Creek or Little Dry Creek from 1820 to until after the Civil War. I've been up there but, of course, a great deal of it is privately owned now. I believe some of the answers I am looking for may be in old Primitive Baptist Church records of Paint Rock. Any idea if or where I might locate such a thing?

Posted on Jun 8, 2003, 9:11 AM"

I will comment on the above post. Kelly names a creek called "Clair" creek. Maps will show that the name is "Clear" creek and not "Clair" creek. Also if Kelly is talking about one of Elijah R. Berry's land purchases, which is a section 15 in Township 3 South Range 3 East that he made in Sep 10, 1838, then this would be at the mouth of Clear creek. That is, up that holler above the end of County Rd 10. Of course, in this same Township and Range, Elijah R. Berry made other purchases throughout the years (in sections 30, 29, and 32). These could have been other places where Elijah could have lived. To be specific, in May 10, 1831 he purchased an area in section 29. In Sept 10, 1838 he purchased an area in section 32. He also made another purchase in June 15, 1838 near Wannville which is in another Township and Range. He also made a purchase in April 2, 1857 in an area South West of New Hope. I just saying; that there are several places that Elijah Right Berry could have lived from 1820 to the beginning of the Civil War (1861).

This is what I know:

1. The 1840 US census states that a Elijah R. Berry and family with an (older male between 60 and 70 who was probably his father Miles Berry) lived somewhere in the southern portion of Madison County.
2. The 1860 US census states that Elijah R Berry, Elenor, and his family lived in Jackson County in Township 3 of Range 6. (This would be somewhere above Hollywood, Alabama. Probably next to Mud Creek.)
3. Elijah R Berry of Jackson County purchases land on May 10, 1831. Description: The West half of the South East quarter of Section 29 in Township 3 of Range 3 East...containing 79 acres and 55 hundredth of an acre. (This would be somewhere just above Garth, Jackson Co., Alabama. Depending on which holler you go up, it could on Little Dry Creek or Clear Creek.)
4. Elijah R Berry of Jackson County purchases land on June 15, 1831. Description: The South West part of fractional section 23, in in Township 3 of Range 7 East...containing 80 acres and 10 hundredth of an acre. (This would also be somewhere near Wannville, Jackson Co., Alabama. Probably next to the Tennessee River.)
- 5) Elijah Right Berry of Jackson County purchases land on Sept 10, 1838. Description: The South East quarter of the North West quarter of Section 32, in Township 3 of Range 3 East...containing 39 acres and 55 hundredth of an acre. (This would be somewhere just above Garth about 5 miles in Jackson Co., Alabama. Depending on which holler you go up, it could on Little Dry Creek or Clear Creek.)
- 6) Elijah R Berry of Jackson County purchases land on Sept 10, 1838. Description: The North West quarter of the North West quarter of Section 15 in Township 3 of Range 3 East...containing 39 acres and 84 hundredth of an acre. (This would be somewhere just above Garth about 5 miles in Jackson Co., Alabama. Depending on which holler you go up, it could on Little Dry Creek or Clear Creek.)
- 7) This looks like a group purchase of 6 men which includes George Washington Berry and Elijah R. Berry on April 2, 1857. Description: The North West quarter of the South East quarter of section 24 in Township 6 of Range 1 East...containing 40 acres and 14 hundredths of an acre. (This would be somewhere about 5 or 8 miles South West of New Hope, Madison County, Alabama.)
- 8) Elijah R Berry purchased land on Dec 15, 1882. Description: East half of the South West quarter of section 30, in Township 3 South of Range 3 East of Huntsville Meridian, in Alabama, containing 79 acres, and 75 hundredth of an acre. (This would be somewhere just above Garth about 5 miles in Jackson Co., Alabama. Depending on which holler you go up, it could on Little Dry Creek or Clear Creek.)
- 9 Elijah R Berry and his son John Miles Berry (with their families) were living in separate household but next door to each other in 1870. This information is according to 1870 U.S. Census. This was at Township 3 Range 2 District 50 in Madison County, Alabama. (This would be near Maysville, Madison County, Alabama. Maysville is not found on any current map but it was about 2 miles North East of Brownsboro, Madison County, Alabama.)

10) John Miles Berry was living in Hill County, Texas in 1880 according to the 1880 U.S. Census. This was in Precinct # 2. (This was probably in Itasca which is 10 miles North of Hillsboro, Hill County, Texas.)

11) John Miles Berry died in the Confederate Home in Austin County, Texas on July 22, 1920. His wife died a little less than three years earlier in Snyder, Scurry County, Texas where she died on Oct 1917. Both John and his wife are buried in Snyder Cemetery.

12) John Miles Berry filled out a pension application and stated that he lived in Snyder, Scurry County, Texas on March 22, 1911.

13) According to the birth of the children of John Miles Berry and his wife Georgia Ann Elizabeth (Maples), John and his wife lived other places in Texas. On March 31, 1875, the sixth child Georgia was born in Coryell County, Texas. On 1878, the seventh child Ephraim Eastland was born in Eastland County, Texas. On April 14, 1882, James Addison was born in Grandview, Johnson County, Texas.

14) From the information given numbers 11, 12, and 13 above, we can conclude that John Miles Berry probably lived in Snyder, Scurry County, Texas sometime after April 14, 1882 and before July 22, 1920.

This map; which I simplified for visualization purposes, came from an 1875 Land Ownership. It shows where the Maples, Glovers, and some Berrys lived at this time in Madison County. You can see that most of them lived just north of the Poplar Ridge area.

ELDER JOSIAH MAPLES

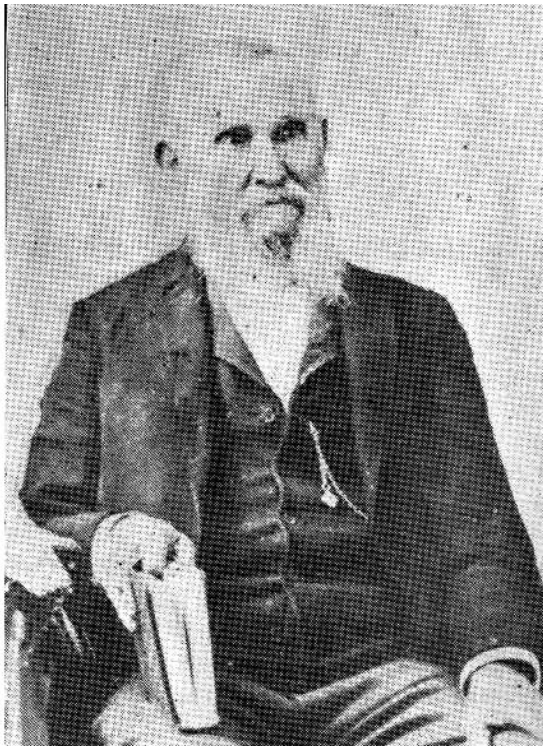

FROM "HISTORY OF MUD CREEK ASSOCIATION" BY JOANN THOMAS ELKIN: Josiah Maples, also known as Joseph, was born January 25, 1794, Pittsylvania County, Virginia; died September 11, 1840, in Jackson County, Alabama, near Woodville. His parents were William Cordra Maples, Sr. and Nancy Long. He was married on June 29, 1815 to Mary Butler, who was born December 1796 in Virginia and died about 1857 near Woodville, Alabama.

Josiah Maples was a private in the War of 1812, serving in Captain Simeon Perry's company of mounted infantry volunteers, East Tennessee Militia, Colonel Samuel Wear's Regiment. He volunteered at Sevierville, Tennessee on June 11, 1813 for the term of three months and was honorably discharged at Sevierville on September 11, 1813.

Josiah and Mary Maples lived in Sevier County, Tennessee until about 1830; they are recorded in the 1830 census of Jackson County, Alabama. Josiah bought 80 acres of land subject to sale at Huntsville, Alabama, General Land Office, on June 29, 1830; the land was located northeast of Woodville, just south of Union Cemetery. Josiah is shown as a messenger from Bethel Church to the association in 1834; he is also shown as an Elder in 1834 and may have been ordained at Bethel Church or in Sevier County, Tennessee prior to his move to Alabama. Bethel Church was newly constituted as a church in 1823; Union Church at Woodville was constituted in August 1835 as an arm of Bethel Church. Josiah was probably a charter member of Union Church since he was a messenger from Union Church to the association in October 1835. His name is listed in the 1835 minutes as a messenger to Elk River Association to be held in 1836 and he was appointed to attend the 2nd District Meeting at Paint Rock Church in May 1836; Josiah was also a messenger from Union Church to the association in 1836 and 1837 and was appointed to attend the district meetings as a minister.

Josiah and Mary Maples are buried in Union Cemetery, Woodville, Alabama. Josiah's grave is marked by a granite stone, hand-chiseled with these words: "The Sacred Memory of Josiah Maples Born Jan 25th 1794 Died Sept 11th 1840". Mary has no marked tombstone. Josiah and Mary Maples had 12 children.

Twenty-seven direct lineage descendants of Josiah Maples were or are members of Union Church. Other direct descendants were members of Mt. Pisgah Church and of churches in Missouri and Texas. Josiah Maples' younger brothers, Peter and McCampbell, were also Primitive Baptist ministers. His father was a member and deacon of Bethel Church. His younger brother, Moses, was a member first at Bethel Church, lettered out in 1840 and joined Union Church and was clerk of the Mud Creek Association from 1849 to 1859. Another brother, W. C. Maples, Jr., was a member of Union Church in 1835, a member of Prospect Church 1845-1859 and a member of Bethel Church, Coryell County, Texas, after moving to Texas in 1859. His brother, George L., was a member of Bethel Church and served as clerk 1867-1869.

ELDER M. C. C. MAPLES

COPIED FROM J S NEWMAN'S HISTORY OF PRIMITIVE BAPTISTS IN TEXAS, OKLAHOMA, AND INDIAN TERRITORY, 1906: Elder Maples was the son of M. C. Maples, who was born December 6, 1795 in Pittsylvania County, Virginia. Elder M. C. C. Maples was born June 8, 1818 in Severe County, Tennessee. On February 9, 1837, he married Miss Elizabeth Wilder. Eleven children were born to this union. He joined Bethel Church in Severe County, in May 1833, and was baptized by Elder Layman

Jones. In 1834, he moved to Jackson County, Alabama, and joined Union Church where he was liberated to preach. In January 1850, he left Alabama, and moved to Lafayette County, Mississippi, and joined Laodicea Church, where he was ordained to the ministry by Elders E. A. Meaders and Joseph Edwards. In 1881, he moved to Texas and joined Mt. Vernon Church in Bell County the same year. He died a member of Mt. Vernon Church in the spring of 1905, in the love and fellowship of his brethren and sisters.

ELDER PETER MAPLES

FROM "HISTORY OF MUD CREEK ASSOCIATION" BY JOANN THOMAS ELKIN: Peter Maples, son of William Cordra Maples, Sr. and Nancy Long, was born October 30, 1804, Sevier County, Tennessee; died January 7, 1885, Poplar Ridge, Madison County, Alabama. About 1823, in Sevier County, Tennessee, he married Mary Moon, born May 2, 1811, Tennessee, died July 11, 1878, Poplar Ridge, Madison County, Alabama.

Peter and Mary are buried in Bethel Cemetery, located a short distance south of their home, as was Bethel Church. Peter purchased 80 acres of land at the public land sale in Huntsville, Madison County, Alabama on October 5, 1830. An original log storehouse built by Peter still stands in the backyard of his former home.

Peter and Mary Maples were members of Bethel Church. More than likely they joined at the same time, on the 4th Sunday in June 1840, and were baptised by Elder Elijah R. Berry. Peter Maples commenced preaching in 1846 and was ordained by Elders James Austill and Simeon Houk in 1848.

In 1842, Peter Maples is shown as a messenger from Bethel Church to the association. In the 1847 minutes, prior to his ordination in 1848, he was appointed to attend the 2nd and 3rd District Meetings to be held at Bethel Church in May 1848 and at Mt. Zion Church in July 1848 along with other ministers. At the association in 1848, he was appointed to preach the Introductory Sermon at the next association to be held at Mt. Pisgah Church in September 1849. He also preached the Introductory Sermon in 1852, 1859 and 1878, and served as moderator of the association from 1868 through 1879. Through the 37 years of his ministry, Elder Maples attended numerous meetings of corresponding associations as well as district meetings. He was pastor of his home church, Bethel, and also pastor of Union Church 1848-1851, and Mt. Pisgah Church 1852-1856 and 1879-1881.

Peter and Mary Maples had nine children. Three of Peter's children were members of Bethel Church; William McCampbell was later a member of Paint Rock and Liberty Churches and he served as association clerk in 1867 and from 1870-1874. Martha Jane Maples and George W. were members. Descendants of George W. are currently members of Union Church. Peter's brothers, Josiah and McCampbell, were also ministers. Peter's father was a deacon at Bethel Church.

This is the Obituary of William Cordra Maples Sr. (1766-1847) and was printed in "The Democrat" (Huntsville), November 17, 1847:

MAPLES, WILLIAM C. DIED--At the residence of his sons, in Madison county, Ala., on the 26th ult., WILLIAM C. MAPLES, in the 81st year of his age. He was a native of Virginia and was one of the Guard, at the age of fifteen years, on Dan River, when the battle was fought at Guilford Court House. He emigrated to East Tennessee in the year 1796, and served as a volunteer in the war of 1812; and emigrated to Alabama in the year 1833. He had been a member of the Baptist church for the rise of fifty years; he was a faithful and useful member of that society, and filled the office of a Deacon and Clerk for the church for a number of years; he was es-teemed as a father in the Gospel; a tender husband and an affectionate father to his children; an agreeable and obliging neighbor. He departed this life in the triumph of a living faith-'In the hope of that eternal life which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began.' He has left a numerous train of connections, scattered almost from the Atlantic to the Pacific ocean.

William Cordra's burial place is unknown at this time, but a granite and bronze slab in the courthouse yard, Huntsville, Alabama, erected and dedicated by the Daughters of the American Revolution reads: "In honor of the Revolutionary Soldiers living in Madison County, Alabama." Among the names is listed William C. Maples. His obituary was widely published in several newspapers and read in part:

William C. Maples, a soldier in the Revolution at the age of 15 years on Dan River and Battle of Guilford Courthouse. An account of this from Dictionary of American Battles, page 182: Guilford Courthouse Battle; "General Lord Charles Cornwallis failed to trap the American Army of General Greene south of the Dan River, he turned back into North Carolina. Greene collected reinforcements in Virginia until he had 4,400 men. Then on February 25th, 1781, he re crossed the Dan River moving to Guilford Courthouse; Greene took up a strong position and waited for Cornwallis to attack. The latter marched westward from Hillsboro reaching the American position in the afternoon of March 15th; Greene had deployed his army as follows: His weakest Militia, North Carolina, occupied the front line behind a zigzag fence. The second line 300 yards to the rear was held by stronger Militia forces from Virginia. More than 500 yards to the rear stood the principal line, the Continentals, drawn up along the brow of the Courthouse hill. Although the British Army of 1,900 was heavily outnumbered, the redcoated regulars advanced steadily. They took the two volleys of the first line and pressed on to the second line. Here the fighting was more severe, but again the relentless British attack overcame American resistance. At the third line the fighting became intense. Finally rather than risking everything in attempting to win a decisive victory, Greene effected an orderly retreat. Cornwallis won the field, but the price was high. More than a fourth of his men were wounded, 93 dead, Greene lost 78, and 183 were wounded. Some militiamen had vanished into the woods. Too weak to pursue the Americans, Cornwallis turned and marched 200 miles to Wilmington, North Carolina to get supplies. He then moved farther North into Virginia."

In the War of 1812, William C. Maples served as Sergeant in Captain William Mitchell's Company of Mounted Infantry, East Tennessee Volunteer Militia, in Regiment commanded by Col. Samuel Wear. He entered service September 27, 1813. He did not receive a pension for either service.

Here is what was written and posted somewhere that I failed to write down. It states:

Moses Maples
by John Burgess

Regarding your question on Mose Maples and Maples Cemetary there are several Maples cemeteries in & around Woodville. The original Maples family cemetary adjoins the property we own which is part of the Mose Maples plantation. The family cemetary has been long neglected with only two headrocks remaining. Mose Maples and family are all buried at Union Cemetary here in Woodville. This cemetary is located on County Road 8 Woodville, Al.

Hope this helps you.
